Publishing ideas

There are many ways of publishing writing. The sets provide many ideas for individual pieces. The home tutor may find the following ideas useful.

Make books

Use sketch books, scrap books, photo albums, plastic folders as books or make your own. When writing leave a wide margin or space to allow for binding.

Ideas for making your own books include the following:

Accordion books

1. Glue long strips of paper together.

   ![Accordion book diagram]

2. a) Fold pages like an accordion.

   ![Accordion folded diagram]

   b) Glue heavier paper or light card to end pieces for cover.

Book in a box

Make a small accordion book.
Attach one end to the inside of a box.

See pages 83-87 for more ideas