Sports Carnival, which was another sensational event. It was pleasing to see how keen our students were, even in the heat, and there were some terrific individual efforts on the day. It was also great to see some of our new families: the Jeffries from Billabalong and the McNaughtons from Coral Bay. I am confident Carnarvon will do well in the Schools of the Air Muster Sports Carnival in Perth again this year to defend our title. Check out the photos from the day in the following pages of the e-newsletter.

Thanks to those families who have completed the online feedback survey. This feedback is very important in informing us of aspects that are working well and aspects that require improvement to enable us to provide the best education service possible to you. We will discuss the results at the School Council meeting which is on Monday the 16th of November 1:00pm on Centra.

There is now a new survey, which is asking for your suggestions for next year’s Home Tutors Seminar. The link to this survey has been sent to you via email.

This week we facilitated cybersafety workshops run by Cybersmart Australia for children, parents and teachers. Our CSOTA students rely heavily on online teaching/learning delivery and use it regularly as part of their distance education program; therefore it is essential that teachers, parents and students are fully aware of the dangers, protocols and effective use of the Internet, which opens the world to our children. As you know there are wonderful and disturbing aspects of the world in which we live. As a school I want students to have the opportunity to access this amazing learning tool,
